6516208438.txt

Dear FCC, XM radio is a great product and service to myself and my family. In america why would you limit access to such a service. Cable TV is a similiar service and has brought to americans the programing they demand. NOW XM radio is doing the same.

I do not see it as the FCC's role to limit trade. Please do not sell out to big business.

Chris Melton Newburgh Indiana